

We Are Grateful

Your prayers and your gifts have graced our lives and made a difference. Thank you! We are grateful not only to those whose names appear here, but also to those who have chosen to remain anonymous. You are always in our hearts and in our prayers. ☀

One of the most energetic of the Coastsweep volunteers was Sister Joan Wolf.

“To heal the social evils it is not enough to feed and clothe a few poor people; that is the smallest part of our duty. We must bridge over the vast abyss that yawns between the rich and the poor.”

— Bishop Wilhelm Emmanuel von Ketteler
Co-Founder, Sisters of Divine Providence

“Fundraising is first and foremost a form of ministry. It is a way of proclaiming what we believe in such a way that we offer other people an opportunity to participate with us in our vision and mission.”

—Henry Nouwen
