

The Providence Connection

VOL. 04 NO. 1

Divine Providence Academy Alumnae Association

September 2009

Jane (Weber) Brieck '58 and John, her husband, have been married for 48 years and have five wonderful daughters, 11 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. They moved back to Beaver Falls from Fairfax, Virginia a few years ago to retire and be closer to their families. Jane said that she enjoys reading all the happenings of the sisters, alumnae and volunteers. She does some sewing and always ends up thinking of Sr. Bertram. "She was so patient with us Freshmen". Sr. Bertram taught them the fundamentals and that has come in handy all her married life. Jane also said that Sr. Bertram showed them such love at the candy table at lunch each day. She really touched Jane's heart.

be closer to her youngest daughter and her family. She is very happy with everything there. However, even though she said that they live in "Eagles territory", she and her daughter's family are rooting for the Steelers to win their sixth Super Bowl. "We are loyal Steelers' fans!"

Maryann (Haberstroh)

Buchanan '59 has been married to her husband, Jim, for 42 years. They have five children and four grandchildren. She has retired from the school district and is currently babysitting their 2 1/2 year old twin grandchildren, Molly and Shawn. Maryann has many memories of riding the bus to DPA from the West End.

Sr. Patricia Cigrand, A.S.C.J.

'60 is the Director of the Spiritual Life Center at the Caritas Christi Center, a ministry of the Apostles' of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Rita (Caniglia) DiSalvo '62 and her husband, Guy, are proud to announce the birth of their first granddaughter, Elisabetta. She was born in March, 2009.

Rita (Ortenzo) Denne '45 said that two years ago she moved from Pittsburgh to Bucks County in Northeastern Pennsylvania to Sr. Maria Fest CDP Faculty is currently serving on the Leadership Team of Sisters of Divine Providence. In that capacity, she serves as Canonical Treasurer. She is on the board of Room At The Inn—a day shelter in the St. Louis Area. Sr. Maria also is the Council Liaison for the sisters in the St. Louis area. She is still involved with Providence Connections, Inc. and was on the Backyard Barbeque Committee. In 2010, Sr. Maria will celebrate her 50th anniversary of graduation from high school and 50 years as a Sister of Divine Providence.

Carolyn Gutowski, Ph.D. '59 said that in December 2008, she had given a major presentation on “Spirituality and Aging: A Contemplative Journey” for the Advent Day of Recollection for the priests, brothers and novices of the Regional Community of the Josephites. Carolyn was the first woman ever to address them on such an occasion. What an honor!

Edie (Paljavscik) Johnson '68 states “As Mai Nona would say: “Wattsa matta you?”. She still lives in the Caribbean and wants people to come and visit. She has the room. “Winter’s coming. Shovel a path from you door to your car. Scrape the ice from your windshield. Drive to the airport, and fly down. I’ll pick you up. Life is short. Do it!”.

Jeannine (Trail) Schoenecker '77 was promoted to the Chief Financial Officer of American Refining Group, Inc.

Marilyn (Goeller) Schmotzer '74 and her husband, John, are celebrating 31 years in business, Metropolitan Window Company. They have four children: Melissa—Graduate of Duquesne University, John—Graduate of United States Naval Academy, Megan—Graduate of Duquesne University, and Justin—Junior at Washington and Jefferson College.

