SEPTEMBER 2011

Labyrinth Evenings

September 13, 20 and October 4, 11

Everything in the movement of life is done in a circle. The four seasons transform us every year by their presence, diversity and beauty. Our task is to recognize that our inner world also has its seasons, through which we move, always willing and graced to receive the valuable teachings they impart. This series is partially based upon the book: The Circle of Life: the Heart's Journey Through the Seasons by Joyce Rupp and Macrina Wiederkehr.

Evening I: Spring

Tuesday, September 13, 2011
6:00 – 8:00 pm

Spring is the season of “HOPE.” Creation comes alive with resilience, new life and transformation after the darkness of winter. Come for an evening of pondering creation’s mysteries; walk the labyrinth reflectively and share with others the gifts that it brings.

Approximate schedule:

6:00 pm Snack, Beverage and Presentation

6:45 pm Walk the Labyrinth, Journal, Share

7:45 pm Closing Prayer

Facilitator: Agnes Raible, CDP, MA

Fee: $10, includes light snack

To register for programs,
call 412-366-1124, fax to 412-635-6318,
or email to kearnssc1@pghcdp.org

Evening II: Summer

Tuesday, September 20, 2011

6:00 – 8:00 pm

Summer is the season of fullness. It inherits spring's passionate urge for continued growth. Long days of summer light encourage anything that has enough moisture to stretch its utmost to the sun. In our spiritual summer, we catch glimpses of the Sacred hidden in all life. Why not come and join us for a "summer" labyrinth experience? Why not come and open your heart to the Spirit that you might be nourished, and grow into the fullness of what the Son, Jesus, promises to those who open their hearts?

Approximate schedule:

6:00 pm Snack, Beverage and Presentation

6:45 pm Walk the Labyrinth, Journal, Share

7:45 pm Closing Prayer

Facilitator: Anne Winschel, CDP, MA

Fee: $10, includes light snack

Note: Other Labyrinth evenings are scheduled for October 3 and 11, 2011. Details are in the October section.

Providence Villa Group-Guided Retreat Series

Retreat I: Poetry as Prayer

Tuesday, September 20, 2011

10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Do you recall the lines from the play, Our Town, where Emily asks, "Do any humans realize life while they live it?" The narrator replies that, "the saints and poets maybe. They do... some." This retreat will be based upon poetry which stirs the heart to prayer and transformation. Poems will be provided that do just that. Bring along a favorite poem or two which have transformed your own life in some way. We will have input, reflection time, sharing and prayer as a part of the program.

Facilitator: M. Joan Coultas, CDP, Ph.D.

Fee: $25, includes lunch

Politics and the Contemplative Life

Thursday, September 22, 2011

7:30 – 9:30 pm

Simone Campbell, a religious leader, lawyer and poet, has been Executive Director of Network, the Catholic social justice lobbying group in Washington, DC, since 2004. She is an advocate of change in the political system, attempting to bring justice, especially to the poor and the powerless. Simone will explain how she lives out her spirituality in the midst of a highly charged political environment, thus engaging listeners in applying Catholic Social Teaching to our common spiritual journey.

Speaker: Simone Campbell, SSS, J.D.

Sponsor: Association of Pittsburgh Priests (APP)

Hospitality: Kearns Spirituality Center

RSVP: 412-366-1124 or kearnssc1@pghcdp.org

Labyrinth Evenings

Evening III: Autumn

Tuesday, October 4, 2011

6:00 - 8:00 pm

There's a time to surrender--a time to let go. What are you called to surrender at this time in the circle of your life? How are you being called to let go? Discover the gift in letting go; the life in the dying--for you and for others. This evening offers you a time and space to spend energy on the process. After a short input, you will have the opportunity to reflect and pray as you walk the labyrinth.

Approximate schedule:

6:00 pm Snack, Beverage and Presentation

6:45 pm Walk the Labyrinth, Journal, Share

7:45 pm Closing Prayer

Facilitator: Maura Luffy, CDP, MA

Fee: $10, includes snack

Evening IV: Winter

See Introduction in September, Schedule above.

Tuesday, October 11, 2011

6:00 - 8:00 pm

Embrace the Holy Darkness of winter and the lessons to be learned from this season! Those attending will be invited to listen carefully to the wisdom hidden in winter darkness and then reflect on the lessons they learned while walking the winter labyrinth.

Facilitator: Carol Stenger, CDP, MSW

Fee: $10, includes snack

Breaking Through the Stained Glass Ceiling: Women Religious Leaders in their Own Words

Thursday, October 13, 2011

7:30-9:30 pm

Maureen Fielder is active in promoting change within the Catholic Church and is the radio host of Interfaith Voices, a radio show broadcast on 77 stations. She has worked for decades in interfaith groups promoting social justice, peace, anti-racism, gender equality and human rights. She will base her talk on women rising to new leadership in multiple roles and faith traditions. Her hope is that it will open up a wide-ranging discussion of the role of women in Roman Catholicism and beyond.

Speaker: Maureen Fiedler, SL, Ph.D.

Sponsor: Association of Pittsburgh Priests (APP)

Hospitality: Kearns Spirituality Center

RSVP: 412-366-1124 or kearnssc1@pghcdp.org

Busy Women’s Retreat: The Question: How Do We Balance Caregiving and Selfcare? Lessons From The Good Samaritan and the Loaves And Fishes

Friday, March 9, 2012, 6:00 pm
to Saturday, March 10, 2012, 5:00 pm

Clues to the answer: A Providence woman is a highly motivated person, whose plate is often way too full! As we know, this can be a path to burnout. Scripture and human wisdom can give us some unique ways to assess our life-styles and to move toward a constructive balance that will enhance our busy lives. Come bond with other women who feel overwhelmed, in the “pause that refreshes” and renews. The Retreat closes on Saturday with a 4 pm liturgy for the Sunday.

Providence Villa Group Guided Retreat Series

Retreat IV: Gifts and Fruits of God's Spirit Lived Out in Jesus

Tuesday, May 15, 2012
10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Often, we glide through the Paschal season and then get caught up in graduations and rites of spring and the wonder and magic of Pentecost is lost. Yet the fruits and gifts of God's Spirit (Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel..., and Joy, Peace, Generosity, Gentleness...) can be the lighting of bright oil lamps to guide our journey. Come! Claim these gifts as your own as you experience them lived out in Jesus and in your own experience of life. Time for prayer, reflection, journaling and sharing is provided.

Facilitator: Carol Stenger, CDP, MSW

Fee: $25, includes lunch

Experience The Kearns Labyrinth

Kearns Spirituality Center invites you to experience the beauty and spiritual renewal of our outdoor labyrinth, available 24 hours a day all year for the enjoyment of all visitors.

Our labyrinth is a powerful spiritual tool whose path leads one to one's own center. It offers one path; there are no false turns or dead ends. The seeker can use the labyrinth to quiet the mind and find peace. It is a tool for meditation that serves as a metaphor for one's spiritual journey.

The labyrinth at Kearns, a duplicate of the Chartres Cathedral labyrinth, is located behind the Center and can be reached by walking past the main entrance of the building, then walking toward the right.

Everyone is welcome to walk the labyrinth at anytime without a reservation.
