Compassionate Hospitality

Do you long for a place where you can pull back from the busyness of life and the demands and pressures that accompany it? Providence Villa welcomes all who seek to enrich their unique life journey through private prayer, retreat, and learning.

The Villa has been pleased to welcome a variety of small groups such as parish staffs, parish councils, prayer groups, school administrators and staffs as well as many individuals who visit the Villa to make private retreats. Groups are welcome for meetings, support, seminars, planning sessions, and liturgy. When you or your group needs to get away, the staff at Providence Villa will be happy to work with you to plan your special event. The Villa offers the environment, hospitality, and the amenities you want for a retreat or off-site meeting.

Enhance your decision-making and improve your creativity – schedule your next gathering at Providence Villa.

Providence Villa... a peaceful oasis in the heart of the North Hills

Unique Meeting Place

The three-story Villa consists of a main building with 13 bedrooms, several meeting rooms, a kitchen, library, and formal dining room. In addition, state-of-the-art audio-visual equipment, computer ports, a conference phone system, and 16 acres of lush woodland make Providence Villa a unique meeting place.

Providence Villa's welcoming staff invites you to enjoy the quiet chapel, cozy wood burning fireplaces, and spacious lawn and wooded trails.

Guests may also choose to stay in the Villa's stand alone cottage with a kitchen and accommodations to sleep six.

Find Out More

Providence Villa is a naturally welcoming structure with a rich retreat heritage. Formerly operated by the Ladies of Bethany as The Ark and The Dove, an ecumenical meeting place, and, most recently, as the Cardinal Wright Vocation and Prayer Center, many people have been renewed in the peaceful atmosphere of the Villa.

Providence Villa is part of the Divine Providence Retreat Ministry which also includes Kearns Spirituality and Conference Center in Allison Park and Transfiguration House of Prayer in Butler. These ministries of hospitality exist to further the mission of the Sisters of Divine Providence to make God's Providence visible in the world.
